

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

TANNER D. JURGENS,

Defendant.

8:13-CR-69

TENTATIVE FINDINGS

The Court has received the revised presentence investigation report and addendum in this case. There are no objections to the presentence report. The defendant has filed a motion for variance (filing 28).

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Court will consult and follow the Federal Sentencing Guidelines to the extent permitted and required by United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), and subsequent cases. In this regard, the Court gives notice that, unless otherwise ordered, it will:
 - (a) give the advisory Guidelines respectful consideration within the context of each individual case and will filter the Guidelines' advice through the 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) factors, but will not afford the Guidelines any particular or "substantial" weight;
 - (b) resolve all factual disputes relevant to sentencing by the greater weight of the evidence and without the aid of a jury;
 - (c) impose upon the United States the burden of proof on all Guidelines enhancements;
 - (d) impose upon the defendant the burden of proof on all Guidelines mitigators;
 - (e) depart from the advisory Guidelines, if appropriate, using pre-Booker departure theory; and

- (f) in cases where a departure using pre-Booker departure theory is not warranted, deviate or vary from the Guidelines when there is a principled reason justifying a sentence different than that called for by application of the advisory Guidelines, again without affording the Guidelines any particular or "substantial" weight.
2. The Court specifically gives notice that its application of U.S.S.G. § 2G2.2 in this case will be guided by the modified framework and considerations set forth in the Court's decision in United States v. Abraham, No. 8:12-cr-384, 2013 WL 2099795, at *6-11 (May 15, 2013).
 3. There are no objections that require resolution at sentencing. The defendant has filed a motion for variance (filing 28), urging the Court to vary downward based on the defendant's personal circumstances. See filing 29. The defendant's motion will be resolved at sentencing. The defendant has also indicated that he will provide evidence and a sentencing memorandum "closer to sentencing." Filing 29 at 3-4. The defendant is strongly encouraged to submit that information as soon as possible, so that the government has an opportunity to respond and the Court has adequate time to weigh the evidence and the defendant's argument before sentencing.
 4. Except to the extent, if any, that the Court has sustained an objection, granted a motion, or reserved an issue for later resolution in the preceding paragraphs, the parties are notified that the Court's tentative findings are that the presentence report is correct in all respects.
 5. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, that party shall, as soon as possible (but in any event no later than three (3) business days before sentencing) file with the Court and serve upon opposing counsel an objection challenging these tentative findings, supported by a brief as to the law and such evidentiary materials as are required, giving due regard to the local rules of practice governing the submission of evidentiary materials. If an evidentiary hearing is requested, such filings should include a statement describing why a hearing is necessary and how long such a hearing would take.
 6. Absent timely submission of the information required by the preceding paragraph, the Court's tentative findings may become final and the presentence report may be relied upon by the Court without more.

7. Unless otherwise ordered, any objection challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

Dated this 6th day of August, 2013.
